EMPLOYERS USURP I.A. RIGHTS

Records of Office Seekers Revealed to Marine Voters

When we go to the polls this November we will be on the verge of realizing the dream of the office seeker, the moment for which he has been working so hard. These men are the Davises, Adams, Ams, and others, who have been working hard for the office of Mayor or City Commissioner. These men use every means at their disposal to gain the confidence of the voters, and they will be elected to office. Their record of office seeker activities is a proud one.

There is no doubt that these men have done an excellent job of office seeking. They have worked hard and have been successful in gaining the confidence of the voters. They are the office seekers who have made it possible for the office seekers to be elected to office. They are the office seekers who have made it possible for the office seekers to be elected to office.
Solidarity Shown in Machinist's Resolution

WHEREAS, the International Machinists' Association and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers were long time enemies and bitter rivals in this city; now, however, both organizations have met the strike situation in a united front and have come out of the strike as the equals of any labor organization in the country.

WHEREAS, the Machinists have shown the world that they are no longer the party of their own past and that they are no longer interested in the interests of the railroads, but that they are interested in the interests of the workers.

WHEREAS, the Machinists have shown the world that they are no longer the party of the past and that they are no longer interested in the interests of the railroads, but that they are interested in the interests of the workers.

WHEREAS, the Machinists have shown the world that they are no longer the party of the past and that they are no longer interested in the interests of the railroads, but that they are interested in the interests of the workers.

WHEREAS, the Machinists have shown the world that they are no longer the party of the past and that they are no longer interested in the interests of the railroads, but that they are interested in the interests of the workers.

WHEREAS, the Machinists have shown the world that they are no longer the party of the past and that they are no longer interested in the interests of the railroads, but that they are interested in the interests of the workers.

WHEREAS, the Machinists have shown the world that they are no longer the party of the past and that they are no longer interested in the interests of the railroads, but that they are interested in the interests of the workers.
U. of C. Students Seek First Hand Information On Waterfront Conditions

Heard Papers Attack Progressive Groups At University Of California

Organization Of Vigilantes

Apparently frightened by determined and already fruitful efforts on the part of University of California student organizations to raise funds and distribute literature in support of a fair and full and satisfactory settlement of the strike on the waterfront, a group of University of California students, many of whom are members of the Associated Students of the University of California, is going ahead with their program to that end.

A recent meeting called to redetermine the policy of the group was attended by 15 members of the group. It was decided that all enrolled members of the Associated Students of the University of California, plus all other students affiliated with the Associated Students of the University of California, should be people who are actively interested in the waterfront strike.

It was decided by this meeting that all enrolled members of the Associated Students of the University of California, plus all other students affiliated with the Associated Students of the University of California, should be people who are actively interested in the waterfront strike. The group's program is to go ahead with their plan to raise funds and distribute literature in support of a fair and full and satisfactory settlement of the strike on the waterfront. This decision was made by the group to help achieve their goal of raising funds and distributing literature in support of the workers on the waterfront.

Fish Cannons Seek Fair Labor Conditions

Demands of the Fish Cannery Workers Union have, in the past, been virtually ignored by the local authorities. Even when the San Francisco Fisherman's Central Labor Union turned its attention to the case of the waterfront workers, they were ignored. As a result of this neglect of the demands of the Fish Cannery Workers Union, the workers on the waterfront have been left in a state of poverty and uncertainty.

The Fish Cannery Workers Union is demanding that the demands of the workers be met and that they be given a fair and full and satisfactory settlement of the strike on the waterfront. The workers on the waterfront have been left in a state of poverty and uncertainty due to the neglect of the demands of the Fish Cannery Workers Union. The group's program is to raise funds and distribute literature in support of their demands and to help achieve their goal of raising funds and distributing literature in support of the workers on the waterfront.

Vandeleur Sabotages Bloody Thursday

Although the Maritime Federation has been endorsed by the United Labor Candidates in the city, the campaign committee is not sure whether it will be allowed to use the phrase "Vandeleur's Sabotage." The committee would like to use the phrase "Vandeleur's Sabotage" to highlight the fact that Vandeleur was a key figure in the United Labor Candidates' campaign in the city.

Vandeleur and O'Sullivan have been virtually sabotaged by the Council. They state that they are justifiably entitled to the use of the phrase "Vandeleur's Sabotage." The committee would like to use the phrase "Vandeleur's Sabotage" to highlight the fact that Vandeleur was a key figure in the United Labor Candidates' campaign in the city. However, the Council has not yet allowed the use of the phrase "Vandeleur's Sabotage." The committee is not sure whether it will be allowed to use the phrase "Vandeleur's Sabotage." The committee would like to use the phrase "Vandeleur's Sabotage" to highlight the fact that Vandeleur was a key figure in the United Labor Candidates' campaign in the city.

We Earnestly Ask You NOT TO Use the Following Products

With the present tumult of the strike, the following products are being endorsed by the United Labor Candidates in the city:

- San Francisco News
- San Francisco Chronicle
- San Francisco Daily News
- San Francisco Bulletin

These products are being endorsed by the United Labor Candidates in the city, but the committee is not sure whether they will be allowed to use them. The committee would like to use them to raise funds and distribute literature in support of their demands and to help achieve their goal of raising funds and distributing literature in support of the workers on the waterfront.
WORLD NEWS

WASHINGTON—The mailed out a proposal for negotiations. The proposal states that the strike is over what is taking place among the workers. The proposal is that the workers are in breach of contract. The workers are demanding wages.

NEW YORK—The strike of the printers is over what is taking place among the workers. The printers are demanding wages.

SAN FRANCISCO—The printers are demanding wages.

VOYD'S—The printers are demanding wages.

Labor's Continual War

By FERGUS DOLITTLE

They're fighting over who's going to do the job. They're fighting over the right to work. They're fighting over the right to be heard. They're fighting over the right to be treated like human beings.

The Voice of Federation

Lumpen Unions are still the order of the day. They continue to hold up the progress of the workers. They continue to hold back the movement of the workers.

Red Betsy Seeks to Undermine Unions

Red Betsy is still at it. She is still trying to undermine the unions. She is still trying to destroy the movement of the workers.

The Voice of Federation

Labor's war continues. They are fighting for their rights. They are fighting for their freedom. They are fighting for their future.
A RUSE THAT FAILED

The great strike of 1919 taught the shipowners that the winning side in a struggle between workers and management is the side with the greatest popular support.

1. The present tactics of the shipowners show that they have learned that lesson well. The Western Employers' Association, a well-organized propaganda agency, first tried they red scare, aided by a million dollars of government money and the help of some yellow-pressed labor leaders, such as Hearst's Examiner and Call-Bulletin.

2. They have scattered hot cargo, frame-up cargo, on the docks of San Francisco waterfront in an attempt to discredit the entire membership of the I. L. A. and to eliminate a lockout.

3. The shipowners went on tour for months in advance to find out who was behind the strike. Preparations were going forward to convert every gun into an armed fortress for the attack of pickets and the defense of scabs. "Public opinion" was mobilized in the form of a Vigilante Committee of 1,000, provided with a list of "traitors." The refusal of the longshoremen to work this frame-up cargo, and the scab did not amount to very much, was to be heralded in the newspapers as a piece of "honor".

4. The shipowners had blacklisted the entire membership of the I. L. A. and got them some medals.

5. The hope of destroying the Maritime Unions? "Who is striving for that peace?" And "Who is de-
ned to show the Maritime unions that peace is unattainable?"

6. The people of San Francisco want peace on the 'waterfront.' The Maritime Workers of this port ask: "Who is de-
ned to show the Maritime unions that peace is unattainable?"

7. The shipowners want to put the longshoremen in the cargo, deliberately and unnecessarily dumped on every pier into an armed fortress for the attack of pickets and the defense of scabs.

8. The shipowners had prepared for months in advance to put the longshoremen in the cargo, deliberately and unnecessarily dumped on every pier into an armed fortress for the attack of pickets and the defense of scabs. They have learned that lesson well. The Waterfront Employers' Association, composed of 100 men and headed by the American Newspaper Publishers Association, is a piece of the pacifism.

9. The shipowners had prepared for months in advance to put the longshoremen in the cargo, deliberately and unnecessarily dumped on every pier into an armed fortress for the attack of pickets and the defense of scabs. They have learned that lesson well. The Waterfront Employers' Association, composed of 100 men and headed by the American Newspaper Publishers Association, is a piece of the pacifism.

10. We know why that hot cargo was put on the docks. We know it was designed to set those docks on fire, and make us appear to be the firebrands. We are going to take that cargo.

11. The shipowners want to put the longshoremen in the cargo, deliberately and unnecessarily dumped on every pier into an armed fortress for the attack of pickets and the defense of scabs. They have learned that lesson well. The Waterfront Employers' Association, composed of 100 men and headed by the American Newspaper Publishers Association, is a piece of the pacifism.

12. The shipowners want to put the longshoremen in the cargo, deliberately and unnecessarily dumped on every pier into an armed fortress for the attack of pickets and the defense of scabs. They have learned that lesson well. The Waterfront Employers' Association, composed of 100 men and headed by the American Newspaper Publishers Association, is a piece of the pacifism.

13. The shipowners want to put the longshoremen in the cargo, deliberately and unnecessarily dumped on every pier into an armed fortress for the attack of pickets and the defense of scabs. They have learned that lesson well. The Waterfront Employers' Association, composed of 100 men and headed by the American Newspaper Publishers Association, is a piece of the pacifism.

14. The shipowners want to put the longshoremen in the cargo, deliberately and unnecessarily dumped on every pier into an armed fortress for the attack of pickets and the defense of scabs. They have learned that lesson well. The Waterfront Employers' Association, composed of 100 men and headed by the American Newspaper Publishers Association, is a piece of the pacifism.
RANK AND FILE OPINION

In a recent speech in Seattle, Harry Bridges, business agent of the Seamen's Union of the Pacific Coast, said that the people all of the time and all over the world are rising up to the demand for a workers' government and to the demand that the people have their day.

Bridges said that the people of the world are ready to rise to the occasion and to fight for their rights. He said that the workers are ready to stand up for what they believe in and to fight for their rights.

Bridges also said that the workers are ready to go to the polls and vote for candidates who stand for the working class and the poor.

He said that the people of the world are ready to rise up and fight for what they believe in and to stand up for their rights.

Bridges concluded by saying that the workers are ready to fight for their rights and to rise up and fight for what they believe in.

Popular Diciples

In a recent speech in Seattle, Harry Bridges, business agent of the Seamen's Union of the Pacific Coast, said that the people all of the time and all over the world are rising up to the demand for a workers' government and to the demand that the people have their day.

Bridges said that the people of the world are ready to rise to the occasion and to fight for their rights. He said that the workers are ready to stand up for what they believe in and to fight for their rights.

Bridges also said that the workers are ready to go to the polls and vote for candidates who stand for the working class and the poor.

He said that the people of the world are ready to rise up and fight for what they believe in and to stand up for their rights.

Bridges concluded by saying that the workers are ready to fight for their rights and to rise up and fight for what they believe in.

In a recent speech in Seattle, Harry Bridges, business agent of the Seamen's Union of the Pacific Coast, said that the people all of the time and all over the world are rising up to the demand for a workers' government and to the demand that the people have their day.

Bridges said that the people of the world are ready to rise to the occasion and to fight for their rights. He said that the workers are ready to stand up for what they believe in and to fight for their rights.

Bridges also said that the workers are ready to go to the polls and vote for candidates who stand for the working class and the poor.

He said that the people of the world are ready to rise up and fight for what they believe in and to stand up for their rights.

Bridges concluded by saying that the workers are ready to fight for their rights and to rise up and fight for what they believe in.