Pacific Seamen Determined to Stand By

The thirty-third national convention of the International Seamen's Union swung into its second week marked this week by a determined and aggressive stand by West Coast locals against the efforts of West Coast owners to liquidate the Officers' basic rights, the shakedown of the rank and file organization, and the unfair methods of action of the Officers. The officers and the allies, Carbon and Olander, are out to break the Union.

With a determination that would do credit to the ships themselves, the officers have literally hand-picked delegates from their East Coast locals, are concentrating their attack on the officership of the International Seamen's Union, and the Pacific. The officers are not out to make the International Seamen's Union the Pacific. The officers are out to make the Pacific a field of battle where they will settle the score with the officership of the International Seamen's Union and the Pacific.

As a result of this determination, the officers have been holding meetings in San Francisco, San Diego, Seattle, Portland, and other West Coast cities, where they have been building a rank and file organization that will withstand the officers' assaults, and their policies.

At the same time the company's ships "docked," to the superintendents' annoyance. At the same time the company's ships are in port.
Prepare For War!

We can never estimate the force that lies within us until we are tested by a critical emergency. As it is with individuals, so must it be with our organization.

The Maritime Federation has been tested time after time, proved successful under some of the greatest pressures that have ever been brought to bear. It has demonstrated its united strength.

We are fit for emergencies because we have character, strength and integrity in our membership and in our leadership.

We have all at times adopted a policy of square dealing and honesty, in keeping with the solid foundation on which we are built. It is built upon the sacrifices of 1934. It is built upon the sacrifices which we are built. It is built upon the sacrifices of 1934.

As it is with individuals, so must it be with organizations. The force that lies within us is never estimated.

Never underestimate the force that lies within your Federation.

We have never been idle in our efforts to prevent its formation. We have been active in our efforts to support its formation.

Influences are at work to undermine and destroy our unity and our solidarity. It is a battle for survival.

The test of our leadership is whether we are ready to stand firm and fight for our Federation. The test of our membership is whether we are ready to support our Federation.

We must be prepared to make inroads on our unity and our solidarity.

We must be prepared to spend to prevent its formation.

We must be prepared to support it.

As it is with individuals, so must it be with organizations. The force that lies within us is never estimated.
