Ships Beat Vancouver Union Man

Police Stand Idly By As Men Gave Down

Vancouver, Wash., Aug. 30 (UPI) — A fist fight here today ended in the death of a Longshoreman who was killed by a blow over the head. The victim, 25-year-old Robert Brown, was one of the men who had been involved in the recent Longshoremen's strike.

The incident occurred when a group of men entered a Longshoremen's hall in Vancouver and began to fight. The fight quickly escalated into a full-scale riot, with shots being fired and windows being broken. The police were called to the scene, but they were unable to control the situation.

Brown was killed when he was struck in the head with a heavy object. He was pronounced dead on the scene by medical examiners. The cause of death was not immediately known.

The Longshoremen's strike has been going on for several weeks, and there have been several violent incidents during this time. The strike is in response to a proposed wage cut, and the Longshoremen are demanding a wage increase.

The police have been trying to keep the peace, but they have been met with resistance from the strikers. The situation is expected to continue for some time, and it is unclear when the strike will be resolved.

Although longshoremen are said to be high in favor of Admiral Perry Jr., holding that he is treating them right, a large crowd turned out to witness the action of the San Pedro Convention on Friday night. They are not likely to be in favor of Mr. Judge for some time. The San Pedro Convention, however, failed to agree on any action.

Owners Ask Strike Call Off

Owners of the vessels at San Pedro have asked the strike to be called off. They state that they have had no time to work in the past.

At the same time it is said that the longshoremen have not been as active as usual.

A Whale Boat Race

A Whale Boat Race was held in the harbor of San Pedro. The race was won by Detroit.
