San Pedro I. L. A. To End Brutal Police Attacks

San Pedro, June 9.—The strikebreaking campaign of A. F. of L. officials flared into open violence yesterday.

At least 25 men and women were sent to hospitals after being shot twice by professional thugs led by Charles Real of the police department.

A number of men and women were also wounded, and several were critically ill.

The council voted to send telegrams to I. L. A. officials asking for an investigation of the shootings.

Observers See Early Action On New Affiliation

"We have been tested in steel, and stood in action" Brophy told the delegates. "We have been tested in steel, and stood in action. As the voice is going forward, we welcome all of those forces that will build up labor in America to get labor's just dues and to make America a better place to live."

WELCOME UNIONS

"Welcome all unions and we will welcome the West Coast, if, in the cause of union progress, it decides to get organized properly."

"Gentlemen," Brophy said, "we are not afraid of competition. We are not afraid of competition. We are not afraid of competition. We are not afraid of competition. We are not afraid of competition. We are not afraid of competition.

On the C.I.O. asked by the delegates, notably from the I.L.A., to agree to a C.I.O. affiliation were introduced by Brophy. The resolution was adopted by the council, after a debate until 11 o'clock at night to refer to the coming national convention of the I.L.A. for action these two great groups alone, if, in the cause of union progress, it decides to get organized properly.

Seamen Winning Right to Control

The following article, sent to the Voice by Al Leman, sailor aboard the S.S. Sea Thrush, so clearly puts the aims of seamen of America, it is reproduced in full.

We must still remember, however, that the I.S.U. union they want and how it is to be brought about.

There is another question which, in my opinion, is of the utmost importance to the seamen of America. Brought up in the old days of the East Coast, they are from New York to Manila and from London to Shanghai. In San Francisco, C.I.O. and A. F. of Ts workers, with delegates democratically elected from the ships ashore, have organized into the C.1.0., stating that the company has the right to pay what it sees fit. The shop stewards have been elected and all the policies which will be in the interests of all seamen regarded with interest and respect.

Agricultural Workers Demand Green Revolve Phony Charter

But Chances Are Small "Wee Willie" Will Ever Do It

Stockton Workers Expose Vanderleur and His Stooge-like Efforts to Carry Out Dishonest Desires of His Paci-Card Boss at West Point

The following copy of a letter sent to William Green, President of the American Federation of Labor, explaining that the majority of the Stockton Agricultural Workers were not sold out by Vanderleur, Secretary of Agriculture of the State of California, was submitted by the Canners' Workers' Union. The letter was signed by the Central Committee of the Agricultural Workers' Union of Stockton.

In the development of the protest, it was learned that Mr. Vanderleur, Secretary of Labor, and Mr. Dudley Sargent, District Organizer of the American Federation of Labor, were carried away by the propaganda which circulated in the Stockton area that the Agricultural Workers' Union was an organization controlled by the American Federation of Labor. It was also learned that the Canners' Workers' Union was not represented at the meeting of the Agricultural Workers' Union held in San Francisco recently, and that Mr. Vanderleur had not been granted an interview with the Canners' Workers' Union. The letter further stated that the Canners' Workers' Union was not represented at the meeting of the Agricultural Workers' Union held in San Francisco recently, and that Mr. Vanderleur had not been granted an interview with the Canners' Workers' Union.

Я не мог понять, что он делал, но я знал, что он был занятым человеком и мог не ответить на звонок. Я решил дождаться следующего утра, чтобы позвонить ему снова.

Иногда я думал, что он также звался мне по телефону, чтобы мне сказать о том, что произошло с ним в течение дня. Но при этом он никогда не отвечал на звонок.

NEWS AND NOTES OF THE SUP

Headquarters and several branches of the United States have gone on strike in protest against the policies of the political parties and the actions of the United States government. The strike has been called due to the government's failure to implement the 1937 agreements with the unions. The government has been accused of violating the agreements and has been accused of being responsible for the failure of the agreements to be implemented.

San Francisco, June 9—(Special to The Voice)—The 1937 agreements were signed in the interests of peace and prosperity. The agreements provide the machinery for the resolution of disputes between the parties. The agreements are intended to prevent strikes and to provide for the resolution of disputes in a peaceful manner.

Maritime Unions Demand Change In Law On Certificates

The END OF THE TRAIL FOR "BIG BILL" GREGG

Great Lakes Seamans Win First Fight

Cleveland, Ohio, May 6.-The official announcement of the Great Lakes strike, made by the Illinois, Michigan, and Wisconsin state associations of the American Federation of Labor, marks the opening of the first strike in the country for the purpose of bringing about a change in the law on certificate of service.

Heartened by the verdict of the jury, the strikers are determined to fight for the freedom of the seas and the right to form and maintain unions. The strikers are determined to fight for the abolition of the certificate of service, which they consider a mockery of justice and a violation of the rights of American seamen.

National Maritime Federation Nears As Councils Formed

East Coast Unions Take Important Step To Unity

Maritime Councils Similar to West Coast Groups Up and Down the Pacific Started As N.M.U. Preparers to Clear the Road for New Leaders.

NEW YORK, June 2—East Coast unions have taken another step toward formation of the long-sought National Maritime Federation of the Pacific. Two councils, in the East Coast, the N.M.U., and one in the West Coast, the M.O.W., have met and planned, which will be Jack Winston and Edward A. Weyler, respectively, two of the leading men whose councils will find it necessary to make changes in their organization of which the Federal Maritime Council is the chief executive board that the Pacific States are in.

The Maritime Councils are starting a new drive to put its men to work. The L.A., will be the leader in the new drive. The council of the Labor's League in the Pacific States will be a good example to the other councils as to how to work. The N.M.U. has also started its drive, and the M.O.W. has started its drive in the West Coast.

The National Maritime Federation is the result of a long and hard struggle. It has been in the making for several years. The federations of the Pacific States were formed in 1913, and the National Maritime Federation was formed in 1915. The federations of the Pacific States are the result of the work of the National Maritime Federation.

The federation of the Pacific States is started this year. It is a great drive to put the men to work. The L.A., will be the leader in the new drive. The National Maritime Federation of the Pacific, of course, will be the result of the work of the National Maritime Federation.

Carolina Union Head Rebuffs A. F. of L.

W. H. Conner, General President of the National Labor Council of the American Federation of Labor, has rejected the invitation of the Leaders Workers Federation to his organization as a member of the council. The invitation was made by the Leaders Workers Federation in the United States, which is affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, but has refused to recognize the American Federation of Labor as the official organization of the American Federation of Labor.

The leaders of the Leaders Workers Federation have been in close contact with the Trades Workers Federation in the United States. The Trades Workers Federation is the official organization of the American Federation of Labor, and has the right to appoint its members to the American Federation of Labor council.
