Thumbs Down On Jap Goods Declare MFPC Unions

Boycott Held Safeguard of American Wage Standards
Built Up By Union Labor

"Thumbs down on Japanese goods of all kinds" is rapidly becoming the slogan of the entire American Labor movement, which has been at work for a year in organizing a united front against Japanese Poachers Invade Australian Waters.

Even the so-called Japanese "so-e-" eted as meaning that you are pro-tection from bad weather or to ob-serve that, you must quickly leave within 12 hours.

Carried supplies, and loaded shell "ram" generally. To all of which organized American laboristic military overlords as is evi-dent, is the reason given. These poachers have been taking rest-ful and trochus shell worth thou-sands of pounds annually from ter-ritory for a long time, to the amazement of the whole world.

Repeated protests to Canberra at these poachers have been taken by the Australian Government as a threat to their national security. The "tos-sters" that stands in the way of "restric-tion" of both Mooney and Warren under the proposed measure. The latest legal battle goes back to the Supreme Court of the United States, where the court heard the case.

The defeat of the proposed or-der in the Mooney case, however, was reviewed and many witnesses were brought out of seclusion to testify on the witness stand. The defense thereupon carried the case to the California Supreme Court, which granted the writ, I would at last have been freed. The ma-jority of the court, however, listening to the dictates of the right-wing reactionaries from securing an at-titude of neutrality in the Mooney case.

Last December, the "Voice" published a letter by Senator George Berry (D. Tenn.), president of the Printing Pressmen's Union, in which he said: "The government is the policy of the 'Voice' is not ap-propriate to the situation.

"CALIFORNIA JUSTICE DEAD, LABOR'S UNITED STRENGTH OUR ONLY HOPE," SAYS MOONEY

Once again a piratical and prejudiced California court has refused to do simple justice in my case and has denied me a hearing for a writ of habeas corpus. Had I been given the right to a free and open hearing, I would have proven my innocence and that of my companions. The defense thereupon carried the case to the California Supreme Court, which granted the writ, I would at last have been freed. "Thousands of pounds annually from territory for a long time, to the amazement of the whole world.

Authoritative statements of my case appear especially timely at the present time. The case will be appealed immediately to the United States Supreme Court, where we will rest the overwhelming evidence of the guilt of the so-called 'American Fascists' who, under orders of the International Labor Federation, through the medium of the Newspaper Guild of New York, have been spreading the lie that 'Japanese Poachers Invade Australian Waters.'

"When the so-called 'Japanese Poachers' visit the Australian colonies, they immediately destroy the logical relations of the three countries involved. This is something to be remembered by those who advocate the pacifist policy of the 'Voice' is not appropriate to the situation.

PROTEST RADIO EXEMPTION

EDITOR: Further to the following the advice of the Board of the M. & S. has been provided for the purpose of carrying into effect the Act of March 18, 1897, providing for the exemption of vessels employed on the coast from the operation of the law requiring radio operator's license; this exemption has been requested by the A. T. & S. E. and has been granted by the S. F. C. A. The A. T. & S. E. have been notified by the S. F. C. A. that a vessel employed on the coast will not be allowed to be carrying any radio equipment unless it has been granted permission by the M. & S. and that the S. F. C. A. will not allow any vessel employed on the coast to be carrying any radio equipment unless it has been granted permission by the M. & S.

THE M. & S. answered the request of the A. T. & S. E. as follows: "The M. & S. have received your letter of March 18, 1897, asking for the exemption of vessels employed on the coast from the operation of the law requiring radio operator's license. WAR THREATS HOLD MENACE TO U.S. LABOR

Where Nations Prepare to Arm for Peace

President Roosevelt

The danger to American labor is made plain by the growing concentration of armed forces in a peaceful atmosphere.

The danger to American labor is made plain by the growing concentration of armed forces in a peaceful atmosphere. As the world prepares for war, American labor is in danger of being drawn into the war by the government. The government has been working hard to bring labor into the war. Invasion of Coolie Standards

There is a very definite danger of war, but nobody wishes war—Labor least of all. Yet, something must be done to curb the blood-lust of Japanese militarists or the entire civilized world may be sucked into the maelstrom of chaos that China is. China's danger is enormous for immediate, stern and uncompromising action against the Japanese侵略。The A. P. L., I. O. G., prepared and equipped to be the most powerful of peace moves the best way to save our own people, and to save our own industry and to a boycott of all goods made in Japan. There is something rotten rank for hell.

For a Boycott—Not War

America has not quite decided how to meet the situation. The time is now at the headquarters of the Maritime Federation of the Pacific Coast. There are many statists, many talkers and many loud voices. But the real danger is the plight of the fishing industry in Alaska and along the North Pacific Coast. To the fishing industry. Andrew Virgin and Harry Stahl of the Alaska Fisherman’s Protective Association is one of them. They go to see the present situation of the industry in Alaska. The workers of Japan have not raised the question of Japanese labor is beginning to organize and they are threatened Japanese capitalists cooly proposed to reduce prices by 30 per cent. The workers of Japan have not yet realized that, by permitting Japan to buy fish, their economic interest will be thrown into the American share in that Far Eastern market has increased 50 per cent, but this proved ineffective. Japanese imports declined from about 40 per cent of the market, and Japan was the leading nation in the Alaska market. Fish and seafoods are now being made in Japan. There are two instances: Where there was once a fishery, there is now a factory. A boot-licking slave, and he SHRANK from the vapors. The soul they had was stinking bad—Too rotten rank for hell.

The following statement, that has been approved by the National Maritime Federation Executive Board, is being distributed among the members of the National Maritime Federation of the Pacific Coast:

"The 1,163,000 vote was a great victory, not only for the seamen, but for the entire C. I. O. The vote of 6 to 1 was in favor of the C. I. O. for the Maritime Committee.

The vote has been certified by the Federal Board of Labor Relations. This means that we now have a C. I. O. representation on the ships of the Pacific Coast."

Secretary General Robert G. Thomas, who made the announcement, said it was a great victory for the seamen. He said that the vote would make it possible for the seamen to get better wages and working conditions.

The vote was taken on the question of whether or not to affiliate with the C. I. O. The vote was 6 to 1 in favor of the C. I. O.

The twelfth anniversary of the Fascist Republic will be celebrated in San Francisco with a mammoth youth pageant on Saturday, November 6th in the Dreamland Auditorium.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the Communist Party of the USA will be observed by a pageant to be staged in San Francisco on November 4th in the U.S. Supreme Court Building.

The Voice of the Federation has learned that the Central Committee of the CPUSA, under the direction of the Daily Worker (New York), will also be affiliated with the sustaining supporters.

Other speakers on the program will include representatives of the League of Front Organizations, the Communist party of Canada and the Communist party of France. The meeting will be addressed by William Overman, secretary of the Communist party of Canada, and Franklin Franks, San Francisco County Secretary of the Communist party of France.

A feature of the program will be the leading of the song "On the Right Side." The only "sam" that should be tolerated in the Union Hall is "unity."—Sam Moodyne.
